Wednesday 14th September 2016

Dear Parents and Carers of Year 9 pupils

Due to an unfortunate set of circumstances on Tuesday 13th September – heat, traffic, parking etc, we were unable to complete our study of Hunstanton cliffs and sand dunes. As this visit contributes enormously to the study of Fragile Environments currently being undertaken by Year 9, it is intended to repeat the visit next Tuesday, 20th September.

The permission forms which were originally signed will be sufficient for the visit but, if you have a reason why your child should not participate on the visit next week, please notify me in writing so that records can be amended.

As for the 13th September, pupils will require a packed lunch, unless free school meals. A change of shoes is also important and a waterproof coat (Will it really be as hot next Tuesday as it was this week?)

Thank you for your understanding
